

Welcome to Seventh Grade!

Your Personal Supply List

Dear Scholar,

We, your teachers, are so pleased to see you in Seventh Grade for your next school year! Without a doubt, this upcoming year is going to be the greatest school year you've had so far. It'll be fun, more challenging, a little random, full of learning, and beneficial for you!

We're sure you'll quickly "find your feet" when the school year begins, but here's some information that we feel might help you look toward August with confidence.

THIS IS THE STUFF THAT YOU SHOULD HAVE AT THE READY AS WE BEGIN IN AUGUST. THROUGHOUT THE YEAR, OF COURSE, YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE TO RESTOCK YOUR ITEMS THAT YOU CONSUME (PAPER, PENCILS, ETC.).

Social Studies:

- Spiral Notebook
- Folder with inside pockets
- Crayola colored pencils

Mathematics:

- 1.5 inch binder
- Expo (dry-erase) markers

Science:

- 1.5 inch binder
- Dividers for the binder
- Pack of lined paper

ELA

- One bound Composition Notebook
- Folder/binder for handouts
- 7S - One clipboard (for off-desk, out-of-seat writing, OPTIONAL)
- A scholar-chosen novel to read
- One pack of 100 index cards.
- Colored felt-tip pens

General Supplies to have for ALL classes:

- Lots of loose-leaf paper (re-stock often as needed)
- Many, many pencils (re-stock often as needed)
- Colored pens and/or pencils (Crayola, please) and highlighters (re-stock often as needed)
- A pencil pouch
- 12-pocket accordion file (optional, but very useful for scholars who may struggle with organization)
- Inexpensive earbuds to keep at school
- 7N brings Clorox wipes/handsanitizer to ELA
- 7S brings tissues/ paper towels to ELA

Your Teachers, At Your Service

In Seventh Grade, phenomenal scholars require phenomenal teachers. We've got you covered.

- Mr. Langford, Mrs. Phillips, and Mrs. McPheeters lead you to computational and reasoning greatness in Mathematics.
- Ms. Schendel, Ms. Hunter, and Mr. Gaglio guide you to understand early American history in Social Studies.
- Ms. Adams, Mr. O'Dwyer, and Mrs. Taysi will enlighten you in the field of life sciences, from micro to macro, tiny to huge, in Science.
- Mrs. White, Ms. Hunter, and Mr. Wolfe train you to express yourself clearly, understand others better, and will equip you with all the tools to do so in English/Language Arts (ELA).

WE'LL BE GETTING
7TH GRADE TEAM
T-SHIRTS!
LOOK FOR DETAILS
IN THE FIRST DAYS
OF SCHOOL!
HUZZAH!

BE SURE TO HAVE
READ
(NOT SIMPLY WATCHED)
THE LIGHTNING THIEF
BY RICK RIORDAN BY THE
TIME SCHOOL STARTS!
(IF YOU'VE READ IT BEFORE, SKIM THE STORY
FOR A REFRESHER!)

PLEASE NOTE:

Teachers are no longer collecting community supplies, so they might not have pencils, paper, EXPO markers, etc. to provide. (Donations are gladly accepted.)

Scholars are responsible to provide said items and supplies for themselves and keep themselves stocked and prepared.